

Straight talking

The Authentic Conversation Questionnaire

The quality of a conversation can bring people, organisations, even countries together or pull them apart. It's where trust is built or broken. It's where decisions get made. It's where actions are decided. In short, conversations matter.

What are your conversations like? How do you know?

The Authentic Conversation on-line questionnaire will give you a clear, honest and full picture of the range and frequency of behaviours you use in conversations with others.

Simply choose whether you want feedback from one key person or whether you'd like to gather some wider feedback from between 3 – 6 people to build a broader picture.

Self plus feedback from one other person (named feedback)

This online questionnaire is recommended when you want to strengthen a relationship with another key person, and that person is prepared to offer feedback.

Price £95.00 + VAT

Self plus feedback from between 3-6 others (anonymous feedback)

This online questionnaire is recommended when you want to receive feedback from a number of key people on how they experience you in conversations. Whilst the feedback is anonymous, you will be able to see the range and spread of feedback from people.

Price £145.00 + VAT

One hour Authentic Conversation coaching session

Add a 1-hour telephone or Skype coaching session to dig deeper into your feedback and identify key actions to shift the quality of your conversations in the future.

£195.00 + VAT

Do you avoid having difficult conversations?

Are your conversations stretching, honest and direct?

Are you or others too dominant, pushy or dismissive of each other?

Do your conversations bring people together?

How do you know how effective you are?

